We, the Senior Class, feel honored to dedicate
this issue of Hillife to
MRS. HELEN MACON and
MR. WILLIAM F. LATHAN

With the hope that it will in some small way show our grateful appreciation for their friendship and helpfulness in our last year of High School.

Class Poem

This is the year, the inevitable day
That marks fulfillment of our long-sought dream.
We're proud, but yet a little sad. We say Few words to one another. These few hours seem Too short, too glad, too meaningful for speech.
Our four full years of comradeship are gone.
Our goal, our dream, is now within our reach.
We gaze beyond this hour's exultant pride
To strive for life, for laughter, and for love :
To use, O Peace, our knowledge in the tide
To build a haven for thy war-torn dove.
Through cloudy days and sunlit hours long,
The memory of our school will keep us strong.

COLLINS BENNETT
Class Poet

Last Will and Testament

We, the Senior Class of Chapel Hill High School, of the city of Chapel Hill, do make, publish, and declare this to be our last will and testament. Therefore, we do hereby bequeath these possessions to the following:

Item I—Never having been adopted, we leave our ability to stand alone to the Sophomore Class.

Item II—The girls of the Senior Class leave their beauty and beaux to the females of the Junior Class.

Item III—The Senior boys share with the rest of the male members of C.H.H.S. their facility to pass 'by the skin of their teeth.'

Item IV—Madge Lois Ellington bestows upon Peggy Ann Ruark a generous portion of her ever ready laugh.

Item V—With fond expectations, Earl Bush is left Billy Ray's mathematical genius.

Item VI—Betsy Ann Barbee leaves her 'malice toward none' to David Sharpe.

Item VII—To Evander Blackwood and Roger Neal respectively, Johnny Canada and Ben Perry share their extra red stamps.

Item VIII—Collins Bennett willingly bestows her dignity and poise to Jake Neville.

Item IX—Jesse Riley's ability to manipulate the 'Black Cloud' is left to the future driver of that respective omnibus.

Item X—To Jane Sparrow, Dutch Poe presents her vivaciousness assured that she will use it to the best advantage.

Item XI—Mutt Thrift leaves his athletic ability to Benny Johnson.

Item XII—Jane Johnson and John Webb bequeath their mutual understanding to Madeleine Blount and Jack Sparrow with hopes that they will carry on in the old tradition.

Item XIII—Our gal of glamor, Alice Lee Merritt, bestows that prized possession upon Jean Cashion.

Item XIV—Harold Cheek is the lucky recipient of Bill Kilpatrick's intelligence.

Item XV—The Proconian will have to give up its editor, Bill Lloyd, and is counting on Barbara Cashion for leadership next year.

Item XVI—Clarence Bowden leaves his way with women to Leonard Smith.

Item XVII—Mary Jane Nelson grants a share of her mischievous personality to Ruth Young.

Item XVIII—Out of necessity, Mildred Neville presents her quiet ways and thoughtfulness to Erwin Danziger.

Item XIX—Carl Durham regrets that he can not leave his Hillife harem to the incoming editor.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, We, the Senior Class of Chapel Hill High School, have to this, our Last Will and Testament, subscribed our name and set our seal, this the 9th day of June, 1944.

Senior Prophecy

FLASH—This is your Buckner Tardy Slips, Inc., “Slips that slip you into class,” Crime Reporter, Earl Hartsell.

Chief of Police “No Trial” Canada today informed me that the Cone Prison is filled to capacity. This recent crime wave is attributed to the ‘class of ’44’ of Chapel Hill High School.

“Inky-Fingers” Tufts was caught yesterday by “Flat-Top” Gooch while counterfeiting War Bonds in “Fayetteville Fannie” Jernigan’s hideout.

President of the Moral Uplift Society, “I seen ya when ya done it” Crawford, again last night brought in “Bubbles” Meeks. “Bubbles’s” bubble popped when “Dead-Eye” Cole pricked it with a Willkie button.

“Slippy” Mae Hill, Nancy “Snatcher” Williams, Madge “Louie” Ellington, and Cora “Dood-it” Bradshaw were caught shoplifting nylon stockings from Beck & Blands Department Store.

Barbee's Opium Parlor was raided for the second time this week. "Little Joe" Nelson, "The Dutchess" Poe, "Smoke-Rings" Bennett, and Alice "Faggy" Ross were the outstanding characters arrested.

"E. Carrington" Thrift was fined for showing "Zoot-Suit" Bowden's Girlie Follies. Among those in the audience were Mayor La "Buddy Buddy" Perry, City Manager "Muddy Street" Hoenig, and Tax Collector Norris "Dig the Dough" Ray.

"Iron-Jaw" Vashaw, the Matron of Cone Prison, has picked up "Minor" Pell for violating the Child Labor Law at David "Dice" Durham's Gambling Hall.

"Blood-Sucker" Kilpatrick is doomed to fry on July 1st for embalming "Pale-Face" Davis, who was alive at the time.

"Moo-Moo" Hogan and his contented cows have been put under custody for starting a propaganda movement called "No More Meatless Tuesdays."

"Doc Watson" Wilson is now on the trail of Carl "Turnip Termite" Durham, who recently escaped from jail by eating his way through the bars.

This is Earl Hartsell speaking for your Buckner Tardy Slips, Inc., signing off.

Class History

Now that graduation has become a reality instead of just a dream, we must admit that we are a little sorry to leave our school. The four years have seemed long, but think of all the good times we've had and all the things we'll never forget.

We will all look back and remember how it felt to be freshmen; the little fish in the big new school. We didn't even know all the people in our class anymore! Charles Pullen was Student Body President that year and the library system was put in. We remember our swimming team and that exciting Glee Club trip to Greensboro. And remember that first high school party—the picnic out at Hollow Rock, when we all crowded on the truck and bumped out there and had a wonderful time. We can't remember our freshman year without thanking Coach Peacock for the good start he gave us.

Next year we were bigger fish with Bobby Wettach as president. For the first time one of our class ran for a Student Council office. Bill Lloyd was nominated for secretary. It was this year that all of us took a part in the sports program. Mutt Thrift, Ben Perry, and Bill Kilpatrick were the outstanding Sophomores represented in athletics. We all grew up this year—and the girls courageously started wearing lip stick.

The next summer was the most momentous of our high school career—for the night of July 31, our six-year-old school building burned.

We owe all our thanks to the Baptist Church for their kindness in letting us use their building during our Junior year. Under the able leadership of Billy Cheek as Student Body President we became adjusted to the new surroundings. With the understanding sympathy of our Superintendent, Mr. Honeycutt, and the help of the new principal, Mr. C. E. Buckner, much that we had lost was restored.

The High School Library was rebuilt, in a remarkably short time, to its former size and usefulness by Mrs. Peacock, Mrs. Crockford and the generous contributions of the people of the town.

Along with Biology and General Science a study of rodents was instituted as a supplement to American History.

Two important innovations were the shortened schedule and the home room system.

We ended the year with a Junior-Senior Dance at Graham Memorial at which music was provided by the Pre-Flight School Band.

We started this year in the Baptist Church but after a few weeks moved to the Cone House and Elementary School which generously let us use their rooms on the ground floor.

Ben Perry was elected President of the Student Body. The success of the many student council enterprises is due largely to his influence.

Our athletic teams this year have proven to be the best in many seasons. The football team finished the season unscored upon and undefeated. The baseball and basketball teams showed extraordinary ability.

And last of all with the determined editorship of Carl Durham we have been able to publish this our 1944 annual.

Student Council Officers

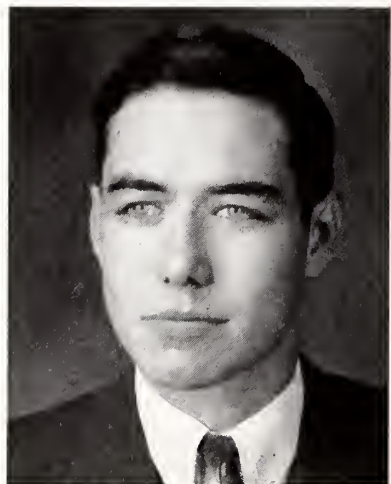

BEN PERRY

Ben as President has organized our Student Council into a smooth running and efficient organization. Realizing the many difficulties he encountered in the new building, we are even more grateful for what he has done. "Buddy" has always been a leader in activities and school spirit.

ROGER THIFT

In taking over the responsibilities of Vice-President of the Student Council, "Mutt" has shown his "team work" ability to the whole school. Although not often called upon to take over as president, Roger has helped the Student Council throughout the year.

BILLY RAY

Taking over one of the most important student offices, Treasurer of the Student Council, Billy has, from the start, worked earnestly and diligently. His excellent book-keeping has been made evident many times by his ready access to any figures needed at the Student Council meetings.

RACHEL BLAND

Rachel's natural talent for careful note taking was recognized by the students in her election to the position of Student Council Secretary. Fulfilling the requirements of her office to the fullest Rachel has compiled a complete record of the activities of the Student Council for the past year.

Student Council

Absent: Betty Vashaw.

FINIS

Throughout the winter and spring we have worked to get our annual out. Finally Hillife has been finished, but with the sigh of relief must go a feeling of regret, regret that it is all over. For we of the staff have gained much more from this annual than we ever put into it.

Future Farmers of America

Absent: Dorothy Glosson, Betty Sparrow, John Williams.

"ABOUT WHICH . . ."

The labor shortage and graduation have reduced the number of members of the library club this year. The small group left, however, have carried on in their usual splendid way to give service to the entire school. The club recognizes with grateful appreciation the loyal and unselfish work of Mrs. H. D. Crockford who has continued to assist in the work of rebuilding the book and magazines collections.

SPORTS

Football

BILL KILPATRICK

As co-captain Bill's aggressive spirit has been an example to the rest of the team. He has won the respect of his opponents with his hard blocking and tackling. Bill left for the Navy in March so was unable to finish his senior year.

ROGER THRIFT

"Mutt" is best known for his passing and punting ability, but he is equally capable of running the ball. He has proved through his work that he is an excellent co-captain and signal caller.

JIMMY BLAKE

Although he waited until his Junior year to come out, "Bluke" proved himself by making first string. As one of the outstanding members of his class on the team, Jimmy will be counted on for great things next year.

EDWARD BUCKNER

Few boys this year could equal Edward's keen fighting spirit. By his willingness to help, he has been an example to the rest of the team.

Chapel Hill 7—Hillsboro 0

Football

EARL BUSH

Earl used his size to advantage in getting through small openings in the line. This and his speed helped him turn in an exceptional game as tailback.

PRESTON CARROLL

Preston was one of the most consistent players on the team this year. He will long be remembered for his sixty yard run against Hillsboro.

WINFRED CARROLL

During his last year of high school football, "Wimp" showed the results of three years experience by his superb defensive play.

JIMMY CRAWFORD

In his first year of varsity football Jimmy strengthened our team. With this year's experience he should make a fine player next year.

Chapel Hill 14—Burlington 0

Football

MEBANE DURHAM

Although waiting for his junior year to come out for football, Mebane got into the spirit quickly and proved to be a valuable asset to the team.

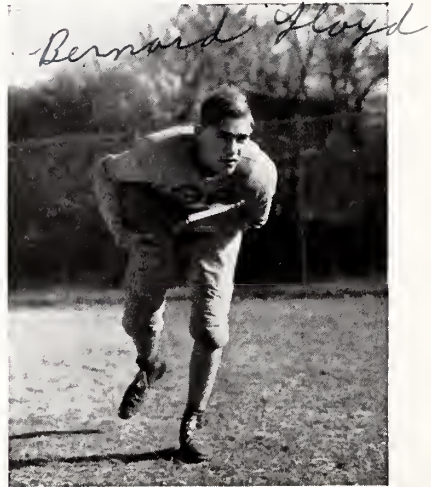

FRANK FEARRINGTON

Although he broke a leg last year and was late in starting, Frank built up to an alternate starting berth at blocking back.

LAWRENCE HOENIG

Lawrence, even though playing his first year of Varsity football, showed great ability. He soon developed into a polished player who easily opened large holes in the opponents' line.

BERNARD LLOYD

Although he started late, Bernard was a hustler. By the end of the year he was one of the finest players on the team.

Chapel Hill 0—Hillsboro 0

Football

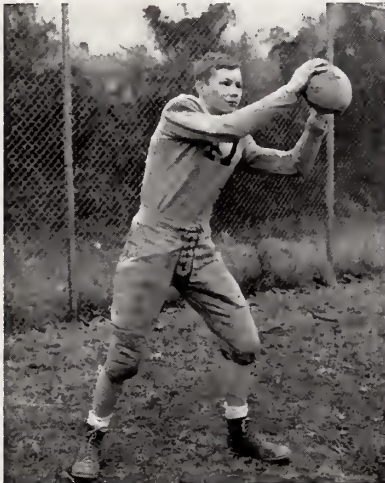

BEN PERRY

Ben could always be counted on to gain the additional yardage needed to make a first down. This, with his fine defensive play, made him one of the stars of the team.

RAEFORD PERRY

Raeford's keen spirit and scrappiness made up for his lack of size. Because of his improvement during the season he moved up to the first team for the last two games.

LEONARD SMITH

Leonard was an outstanding player all year, from the first moment he stepped on the gridiron until the close of the last game. His ability as end should stand the varsity in good stead next season.

MARVIN WILSON

Marvin's fighting spirit inspired the entire team. With his will to play, and his constant hard practice, everyone agreed that he truly earned his letter.

Chapel Hill 13—Bethel Hill 0

Football

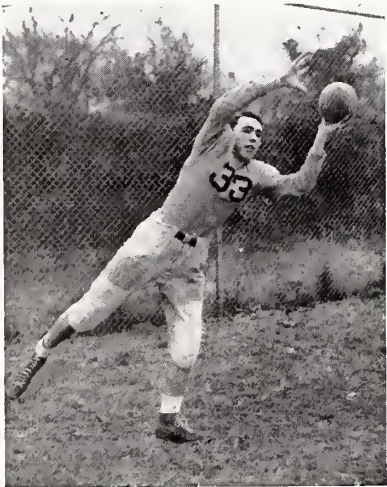

CHARLES WRIGHT

Charles' outstanding play at center was one of the leading factors in Chapel Hill's winning season. His line backing and offense play often accounted for the smile on Coach Pecora's face.

DWIGHT WRIGHT

Although only a freshman, Dwight held his own on the team with his play at center. Throughout the season he showed great promise as a future Wildcat star.

J. D. WRIGHT

Playing his first year at Varsity and J. D. did well in every game and was continually a spark-plug of the Hillian aggregation. Much credit must be given to J. D., as he played most of the season with a bad knee.

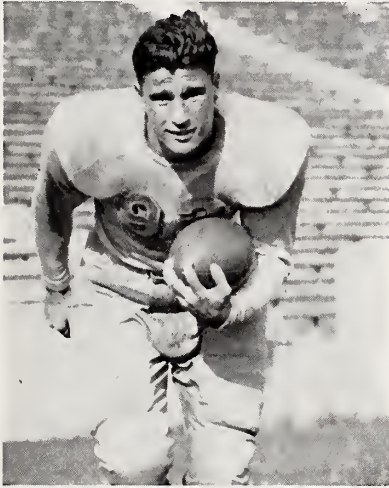

JOHN BOONE

Chapel Hill 40—East Durham Junior High 0

Coaches

JOHNNY PECORA

Johnny, a V-12 Marine in the University, took over the job of head football coach without pay. He had a green bunch of boys, but he turned them into a smooth functioning machine. Although he was transferred midway through the season, he should get most of the credit for the fine showing of the team.

HARDY HENRY

Hardy, also a V-12 Marine, did for the basketball team what Pecora did for the football team. With several boys left over from last year's A and B teams and several new boys, he coached the team to twelve wins against only two losses. These two losses came in the Eastern Class B finals at the hands of Sanford.

CHARLEY GORDON

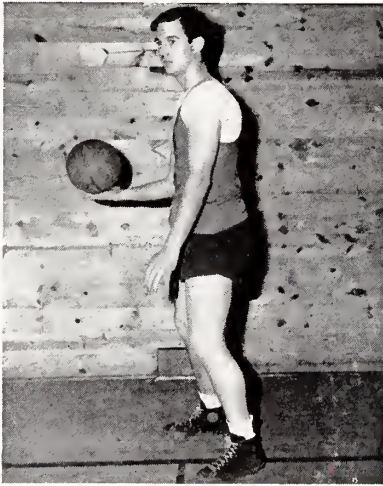

Charley took over the football team where Pecora left off and guided them through the rest of their undefeated season. After Pecora left the team was at a loss until Charley volunteered. Without him the team would have been unable to go on.

TOM LANE

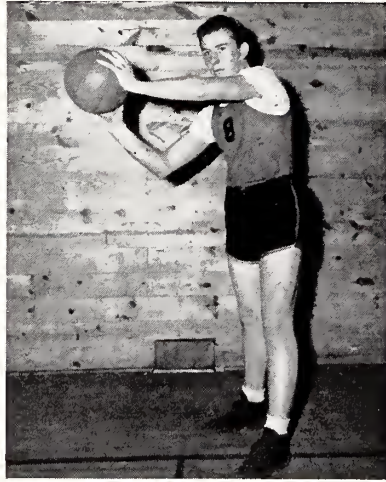

Tom volunteered to be coach of the baseball team just when it looked as if a baseball team was doomed. Although he had a large turnout, only a few had been on the team last year. The first game was lost, but the team showed much improvement as the season progressed.

Basketball

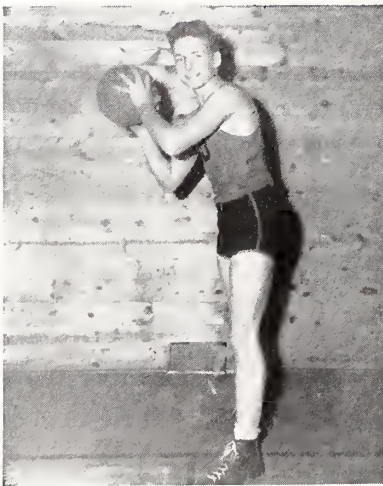

"MUTT" THRIFT

With his knowledge of the game and his ability to hold the team together, "Mutt" was a capable captain. He ran up an enviable record of 110 points scored in his last year of High School basketball.

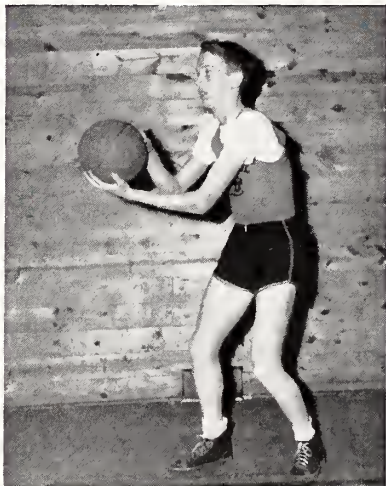

JIMMY BLAKE

Starring at forward, Jimmy's accuracy at hitting the basket often saved the day for the Wildcats. His ability under the backboard helped the team get control of the ball when they needed it most.

FRED BOWMAN

Fred was always a threat to the opposition under the basket whether offensively or defensively. His ability to push them in from under the basket was unequaled by anyone else on the team. Fred, together with "Mutt," seldom missed getting the ball off the backboard.

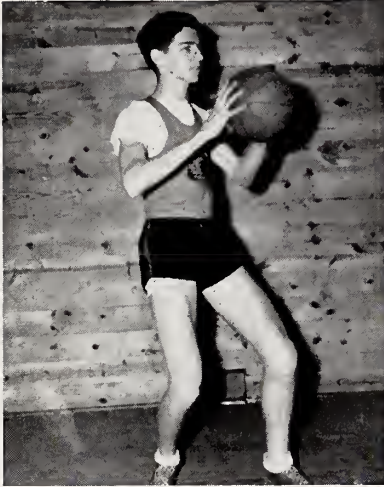

BILLY CARMICHAEL

Billy, with his famous "Gung Ho" shot, was always the favorite with the crowd. By virtue of his fine playing he advanced to the "A" team by the end of the year.

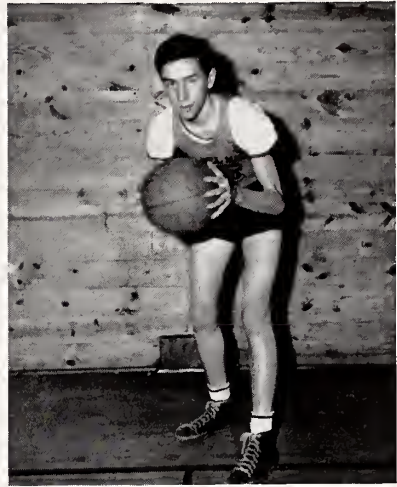

Chapel Hill 29—Hope Valley 17 Chapel Hill 32—Graham 28
Chapel Hill 33—Hillsboro 32

Basketball

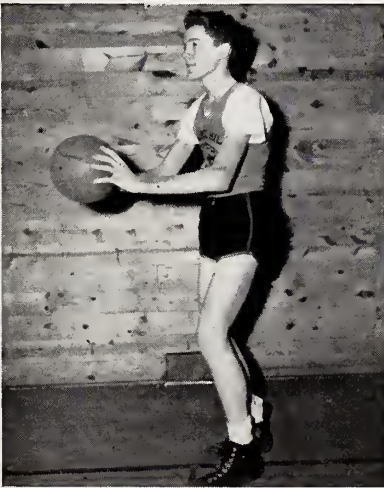

CARL DURHAM

Carl, although he was kept busy by other interests, played hard and practiced hard all season and earned the reputation of being a good center.

JOHN GOBBEL

Johnny was always a constant threat with his one-handed shots. This and his excellent guarding made him one of the best guards on the team.

GORDON INGWERSEN

Although he was the youngest member on the squad, Gordon's spirit made him tops in the eyes of his teammates.

BILL KILLINGER

The quickness with which Bill broke up the opponent's plays and his speed in getting the ball down the court attributed to his place of high scorer with 172 points. His ability to hit the basket from any angle was the winning factor in many games.

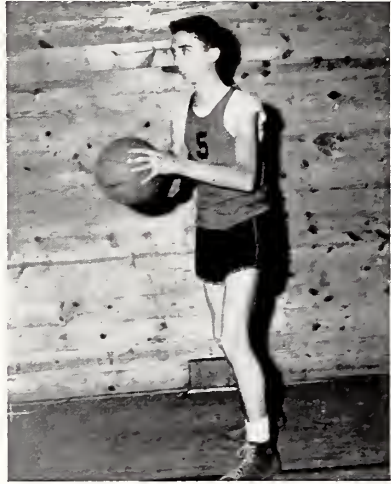

Chapel Hill 38—Hope Valley 26 Chapel Hill 37—Hillsboro 21
Chapel Hill 36—Graham 34

Basketball

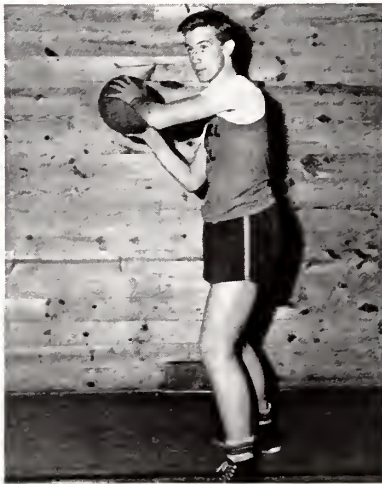

BOB MARE

"The Pride of St. Albans" and his long shots proved to be one of the best combinations on the team. Just give the ball to Bob on his side of the center line and he would put it in. His set shots pulled the team out of many a tough spot.

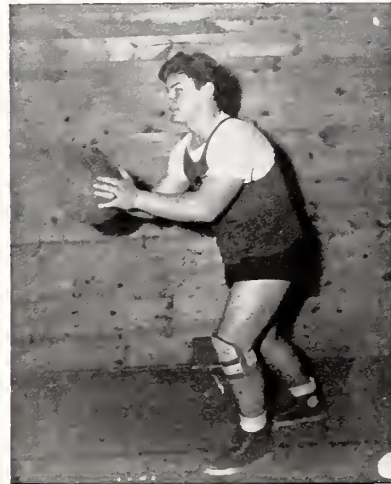

TOM MONTGOMERY

Tom's youth was no hinderance to him in playing his first year of basketball for C.H.H.S.. Up until the last two games, when he broke his finger, he was the No. 1 substitute and one of the outstanding forwards on the team.

BILL OLSEN

Always alert and calm, even in the hottest games, Bill showed flashes of brilliance which foretell a bright future for him.

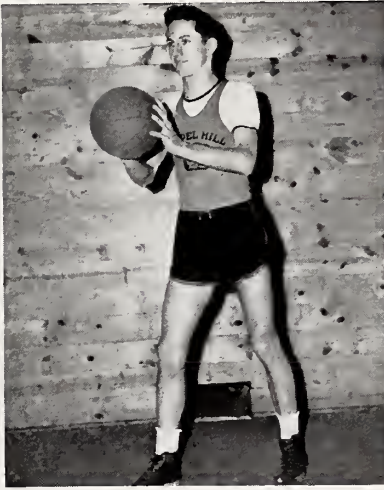

BEN PERRY

Overcoming a trick knee, "Buddy," nevertheless, was in the starting play of nearly every game. With "Mutt" and Bob, Ben completed the threesome that was unbeatable in bringing the ball down the court.

Chapel Hill 47—Burlington 16 Chapel Hill 34—Burlington 25
Chapel Hill 42—Hillsboro 29

Basketball

SAMMY SUMMERLIN

Sam, starting late this year because of illness, came back strong and was one of the team's most consistent set-shot artists.

MARVIN WILSON

Marv, showing the same fighting spirit for which he was known on the football field, hustled throughout the season and gained from his teammates the same admiration he got on the gridiron.

"WHO'S CONCEITED?"

"We the undersigned petition for a girls' basketball team." . . . And so the pitter-patter and clomp-clomp of little and big feet respectively resounded throughout the Tin Can. . . . Under the excellent coaching of Mary Jane Lloyd the team came through a tough four game schedule undefeated. "Use a bounce pass!" . . . "Come on, let's see you run!" . . . B team scores again. . . . Baseball came again to C.H.H.S. and with it the rains. So much, in fact, that practice was a week late in starting. With the abundance of players, Coach Tom Lane quickly got the team rounded into shape.

Preston, I know
I haven't but I guess you love all night, in fact you're all night. Such fun and you are such a sweetie.
Love
Colette

I wish you all the luck in the world, because you really deserve
it. Great Brackwell!

Dear Preston,
It has been nice knowing you.
Best of luck to you.
Love,
Betty Sue Duncan

I have enjoyed being in your English class. Best of luck always.
